Boschhoek Update June 2018

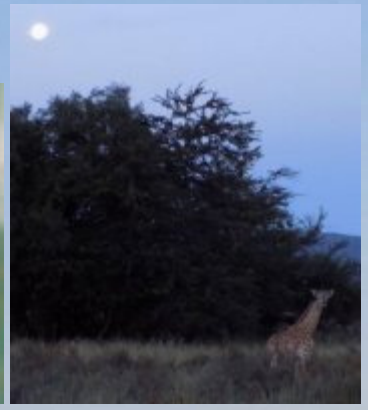
THE ART OF NATURE @ BOSCHHOEK!!

Wow!!

While we seek rest between sunset and sunrise, the other half of Boschhoek steps up for its act. For time immemorial this drama has been playing itself out in the theatre of the night, and few are the spoils left by morning.

During daytime it is the visible part of Boschhoek which is ours to cherish and enjoy.

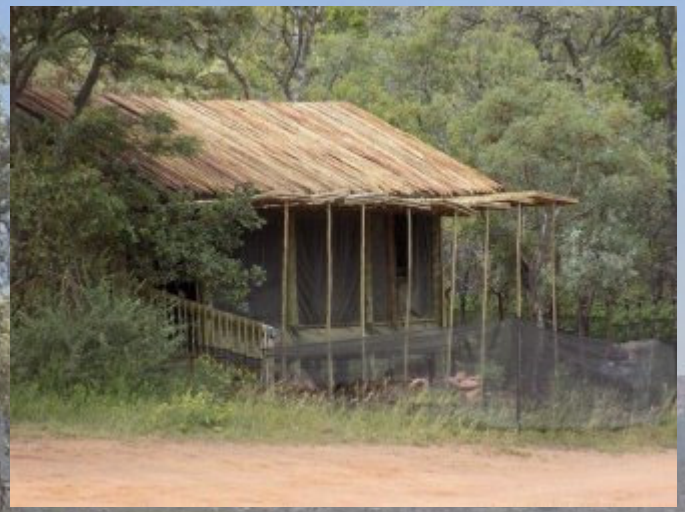
A place of beauty unsurpassed, where Nature reigns supreme.



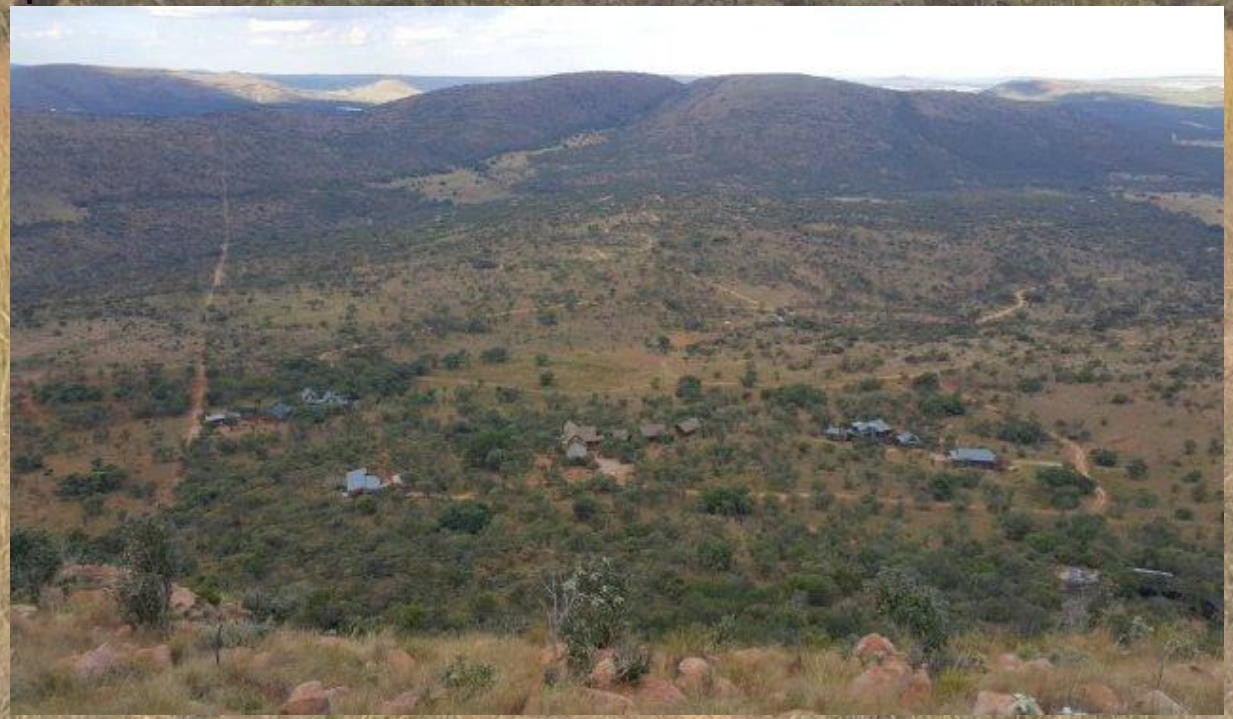
A place in which we are guests and Nature our host, a mere hour and a half from Pretoria and two hours from Johannesburg.

A place so unique that 80% or around 115 of its full title 1-2 hectare bush stands from R599 000 to R1 199 999 have been sold and more than 50 bush houses built, with levies of only R800 per month allowing us peace to enjoy the serenity of mountain and stream.

A place which offers you the freedom to immerse yourself in nature in the way you wish, without being limited by a minimum size or style requirement for your bush abode, whether a tented camp or a five star lodge nestled among tree and rock.



A place where our buildings will only cover around 0.25% (a quarter percent) of Boschhoek's almost 1500 hectares of nature's space.



A place also providing for those who prefer to share with likeminded others. At only R350 000 or R175 000 for a joint purchase with family or friends, only a few shares remain in our fully furnished 12 bed Berg&Bosch Lodge perched on one of the highest stands on Boschhoek.

For a week every two months Berg&Bosch Lodge allows you to take your balcony seat above our amphitheatre at a monthly cost of only R450, finding awed inspiration before returning to city life.

Boschhoek is indeed a special place.

A few special things have also been happening at Boschhoek of late.

A lovely bird hide has been constructed at our clubhouse dam, with some exquisite sightings already being made.

Thanks to Eco Log Homes for the kind sponsorship!

A group of artists under the guidance of the renown Mimi van der Merwe recently visited us and captured The Art of Nature@Boschhoek on paper.

Some of these inspiring works should soon be on display at our clubhouse.

Our estate manager Jandre Higgo discovered a long lost dam and water hole and Jandre and his team has also been busy setting up our walk-in game capture boma, designed for a stress free capture process.

(kudos to those who can find it!)

With game numbers having increased to capacity in the past years, the sale of excess game is set to be another regular source of additional income helping to keep Boschhoek pristine and our levies low.

On the marketing front, Boschhoek is expanding its extensive marketing campaign into the digital arena on

NETWERK 24
AL DIE NUUS, ALTYD BYDERHAND

Look out for our new online ad in the Lifestyle section!

As always, we conclude by extending an open invitation to all those who have not yet experienced the Art of Nature@Boschhoek. Come, let Jandre share with you a sample of Nature's palette. You may well be enticed into taking up the brush yourself, whether for an occasional getaway or for life! Combine it with your own streamside picnic, or enjoy a lovely light meal at Leeuwenhof Country Lodge next door.

We are typically available Saturdays and Sundays at 09h30, 12h00 or 14h30. Kindly call to arrange.

Thanks to the Boschhoekers for all the lovely pics – keep sharing!
